HUERTA NOT ASKED TO RESIGN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Secretary of State Bryan today denied that any ultimatum has been sent to Mexico. The Secretary of State gave out the following statement shortly after noon:

I have made it a rule not to discuss newspaper reports concerning international matters; but the nature of the dispatches from Mexico this morning suggest a departure from the rule at this time. No ultimatum has been sent to Mexico, and it is not unusual that the press should give credence to such a report.

The bare date of speculation, or even inaccuracies in regard to domestic questions, is limited because the people are acquainted with the subject and can make allowances; but as misstatements in regard to international matters may lead to serious consequences I feel justified in making the above denial.

O'SHAUGHNESSY SWEARS NO ULTIMATUM WAS TRANSMITTED BY HIM

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 4.—(News) O'Shaughnessy, American chargé d'affaires, declared today that he had transmitted no ultimatum to General Huerta. "I have presented no note to the Mexican government within the last ten days," said O'Shaughnessy. "I have not told Huerta to go out. The international situation is managed by the rest of my knowledge."

Mr. O'Shaughnessy expressed surprise when he read press dispatches from Washington saying that President Wilson had demanded the abdication of Huerta.

"You have my word of honor that no such thing has transpired," continued Mr. O'Shaughnessy. "I have not seen Foreign Minister Monera for five days and of course any diplomatic representation I might make would be extended through him. I have not been in communication with the Mexican foreign minister. So far as I know at present there is nothing upon which to predict a change in the present state."

"I do not wish to say that General Huerta is as far as I know now. I am in such a position that I would have knowledge of such an event if an ultimatum had been delivered to me. I do not know of any such event."

"The Russian, German and Norwegian ministers have been with the dictator several days and it is patent that I could not have been deceived. I have attempted to get President Huerta to discuss the rumored ultimatum or to talk about the foreign relations of Mexico were futile. Huerta instructed the ministers of his cabinet to remain silent. In answer to a question as to how the future will open for itself."

It is believed there will be definite developments of some nature this week. There has been active planning in the national police and of late long conferences have been held between the dictator and his close advisers. It is believed that the United States will not be a witness as to make it plain to Huerta that he may advance in order to avoid armed intervention. It is also believed, however, that a formal request in the form of an ultimatum will be delivered. At least not right away.

KILLING AT POLLS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—One death, scores of arrests and some rioting marked the election in New York City today. A light rain which had fallen throughout the night stopped before the polls opened and the sun came out. A heavy vote was cast.

Joseph Pater was shot to death in the Hudson and Fifth street on account of a gang feud, which had its climax in an election quarrel. With his dying breath Pater whispered into the ear of a policeman:

"I have what you want. I will pay the back of my own way."

On account of the heat of the campaign, especially over the salary question between John Purroy Mitchell, the Fusion nominee, and Judge Edward E. McCall, the Tammany candidate, extra duty precautions were taken against rioters. Attorney William and scores of special officers armed with warrants at the polling places. They made many arrests. The police therefore issued special orders that police and militia were to be observed.

The first rioting occurred in the Second Assembly District. When General J. J. Felt, an active worker for the Fusion party, was shot, the police and militia were called out. The police and militia were called out. The police and militia were called out.

Mr. Driscoll, after a fight of the last side district, declared that conditions were peaceful. "I saw professional gunmen waiting to intimidate voters," said Driscoll. "I saw professional gunmen waiting to intimidate voters."

In the sixth assembly district where William Butler, the Independent governor, is running for the assembly on the Progressive ticket, the Bull Moose party had scores of volunteer watchers. Butler voted as soon as his polling place was open.

At his station and emerged he was wildly cheered. "Thank you, boys," he said. "Send me back to the assembly and we will see that you get the right man and the right man."

The former governor was then walking through his district in an automobile. Everywhere his appearance was the signal for a demonstration.

"American Readers for American Advertising."

This suggestion is bearing fruit in many fields. For one thing, it is a precious help in home-finding.

American readers who make themselves known as such find dwelling-places that suit them as if made to order by calling on progressive renting agents who advertise Apartments to Let in the Evening and Sunday American.

Some of the readers who made such calls yesterday discovered that particular apartments they had in mind had been spoken for.

But they were not sent away disappointed, for these alert and trustworthy renting agents had other apartments as desirable in every way to discriminating tenants.

Thus do American advertisers exert themselves, with energy and success, to please those whom they know to be American readers.

W. R. HEARST'S FIGHT AGAINST TAMMANY

TO-DAY'S TRIUMPH THE RESULT OF CONSISTENT WAR BY THE

SNEERS OF CITY PRESS AT HEARST ADVOCACY OF MITCHEL A BOO MERANG

The Triumphant Independent Campaign Now Looked Upon as a Sure Deathblow to Bossism and as Opening an Era for Clean Government. So Long the Battle Cry of Hearst Papers

With the triumphant election of John Purroy Mitchel as certain as forecasts and public sentiment can make it, this day, Tuesday, November Fourth, will go down in the municipal history of the metropolis as a red letter milestone.

Mitchel has been backed by W. R. Hearst and his papers because he stood for the elimination of Tammany Hall and bossism from city government.

Mr. Hearst has fought for years against the system entrenched under the leadership of Murphy, the corrupt ruler of a corrupt circle. His opposition to Murphy's candidate for Mayor, ex-Judge Edward E. McCall, was based on the candidate's servile allegiance to the boss who made him what he is.

In supporting Mr. Mitchel Mr. Hearst has from the first part of the campaign been the frequent object of invective from the press of the city.

These adverse comments on his support of a candidate who has proven the correctness of Mr. Hearst's judgment speak for themselves.

"Hearst Must Be Kept Out of the City Hall"

(From the Evening Sun, September 22.)

Fusion—Evening Sun style.

The issues of the municipal campaign are simple:

William Randolph Hearst must be kept out of City Hall.

All sorts and conditions of looters must be kept away from the City Treasury.

A vote for Judge E. E. McCall is a vote against Hearst and all his municipal follies and fallacies.

Only a Doubtful Advantage Now Seen.

(From the Sun, September 11.)

Well, well, who would have thought that a trademark could ever be ashamed of its maker? Tinsley lies the head that wears a halo. We had supposed that the Hon. John Purroy Mitchel was proud of the Hearst label and sported it on his lapel like a rosette of distinction.

When the Fusion ticket was first held up to the light the Hearst watermark was not only evident and clear, but the imprint was advertised as a symbol of purity and strength.

"Mr. Hearst Has Real Influence in This Town"

(From the Sun, Oct. 29.)

To criticize Mr. Mitchel for attending the Hearst meeting to life and foetus Mr. Hearst has real political influence in this town and Mr. Mitchel has never concealed the fact that he desired it.

"Mitchel Right in Taking Support of the League."

(From the World, Sept. 27.)

John Purroy Mitchel is fully justified in accepting the support of the Independence League in his candidacy for Mayor. Messrs. McNamara and Prudden, his fellow-candidates, approve that course, and it is favored by the Fusion Committee. There is no reason why this proffer of assistance should be declined.

The Terrible Bogie William R. Hearst.

(From the Tribune, Oct. 6.)

Our neighbor "The Sun" is moved to double leads by the memory that when Mr. Mitchel was opposing the subway contracts Mr. W. R. Hearst threatened confiscation and other dire things. Mitchel didn't do these things, but Mr. Hearst, who happened to agree with Mr. Mitchel, did. Therefore, argues "The Sun" indignantly, Mr. Mitchel is a very dangerous man. For how can life and property be safe if when Mr. Mitchel thought the subway contracts a bad bargain and Mr. Hearst thought the subway contracts a bad bargain Mr. Hearst used very violent language indeed to express his opposition? Much safer it is to vote for Mr. McCall. Mr. McCall is the candidate of Murphy. Which makes him seem a refuge in this hour of revolutionary surmising, especially when he is recommended as such by the omnipotent "Sun." Identify support of the Hearst candidates for the Board of Estimate and Apportionment four years ago,

THE MORNING SUN

THE MORNING SUN

"Too Much Under Influence of Hearst." (From the Tribune, Aug. 27.) The chief weakness of Mr. Mitchel was due to the bolter that he was too much under the influence of Hearst. People remembered his attitude upon the subway question and thought that an president of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment four years ago, please Hearst. They feared that as Mayor he would be too much of a deputy for Hearst. In a letter addressed to the Hon. William M. Calder, the Hon. Judson G. Wall, himself a Republican, yesterday wrote: "I cannot attend a meeting called in honor of Mr. Hearst's candidate for Mayor of this town."

THE MORNING SUN

Did He Ever Paint a Winner?

There is nothing novel or unusual in this statement itself. Since a "Fusion" of Hearst agents and Progressive "leaders" meeting in the "Green Room" of the Fifth Avenue Building, nominated Mr. John Purroy Mitchel for Mayor of this town, how many thousands of Republicans have made similar comment, expressed a like disgust by precisely the same declaration?

Mr. Mitchel's exposure of Hearst should be effective. It comes from a man whom the editor has favored and supported and taught his misguided followers to trust. Mr. Mitchel has stood for the principles that Hearst professed to hold. He has taken the Hearst position on subways. The public which has hitherto followed the editor should have faith in Mr. Mitchel. If anything can destroy Hearst's capacity for mischief it is Mr. Mitchel's reputation of him.

Mr. Hearst's Candidate for Mayor Assailed

(From the Evening Sun, Sept. 26.)

From our morning mail we select the following well-considered and wholly sound conspectus of Republican opportunity: To the Editor of the Evening Sun—Sir: It has afforded me much pleasure to read in your paper of this date the letter signed W. F. Washington, D. C. As a lifelong Republican I agree with W. F. In every respect, and cannot for my life see how any Republican, or in fact any voter, can go to the polls and vote for William Randolph Hearst or any one connected with the Independence League.

I think it just about time that this man Hearst and his followers should be wiped out of existence.

A REPUBLICAN. Brooklyn, Sept. 27. Republican duty on Nov. 4 is as plain as a pikestaff. Fortunately it is not mistaken by Republican.

The World Asks the N. Y. Sun a Question.

(From the World, Oct. 2.)

Our friend and neighbor, the Sun has made the highly interesting discovery that John Purroy Mitchel is "Hearst's man," and therefore ought to be defeated.

Four years ago our neighbor was less concerned about Mr. Hearst than it is now. It was then fighting shoulder to shoulder with him in the vain attempt to prevent the election of Judge Gaynor. It took pains to tell its readers that Mr. Hearst was better than Judge Gaynor and to congratulate Mr. Hearst. Mr. Mitchel was on the Hearst ticket in that campaign, too.

It is only when Mitchel leads the campaign to overthrow Murphy and Murphy that the Sun is shocked by a disappointed Hearst talent.

Cribb First to Adopt New Training Methods

By Hal Coffman.

Tom Cribb, one of the best and most popular of the old-time English fighters was born near Bristol about 1780. He won the championship from Bob Gregson in 1808 and kept it until he voluntarily retired in 1822. Under the tutelage of a Captain Barclay he was the first of the old "bare knuckle" and "London Prize Ring Rule" fighters to adopt the modern methods of training. Before that time fighters would train on rare—very rare—meat and plenty of ale or porter, thinking that the more FAT they had on them the better they could fight. The clean and healthy way of living was the secret of Cribb winning his hardest fight, namely, the one with the giant American negro, Mollinax. For Mollinax outfigured him until his fat and faulty wind began to tell, when Cribb waded in and finished him after thirty-three terrible rounds. A round in those days, too, was not counted as a round until one man hit the ground. Just try and imagine—if you can—our present day "hopes" stacking up alongside of any of those birds of that generation.

Maranville's Useful Advice to Amateurs

By WALTER J. (RABBIT) MARANVILLE.

I AM plainly as by the appearance of the stack of mail that poured into me at the AMERICAN office yesterday, from all parts of New England, that there are many amateur ball players, with big league ambitions. Almost every letter voiced some question or a different question. I regret that I am unable to answer all the questions asked, because of lack of space, but I will answer the more important ones.

When Griffith and myself finished our performance yesterday afternoon, I hastily made my way to the AMERICAN office. I really was not in the least surprised at the amount of mail sent me, because I know that each and every amateur is always looking for advice about baseball. I was myself, when I played on both amateur and semipro teams, and therefore I appreciate what the amateur goes through in the way of Walter J. Maranville advice.

NOT SURPRISED AT A STACK OF MAIL.

One of my readers asked me if I had a "pull" that helped me to get into the big league. I want to say right here that no matter how strong a "pull" a fellow has, if he does not have the goods to show the manager of a team his "pull" is worth a cent. Another reader says he would have been in the big league if it had not been for a certain manager, whom he claims was "good" on him. This, my good reader, is all nonsense. I must repeat, that even if a manager happened to make a player personally, and if this same player could show real baseball ability on the field, the manager would advise this reader to see some other manager and ask for a try-out. When you show a recommendation from some one personally, saying that you have the stuff, and if the person recommending you is known in the baseball world as an authority on the sport, you will get the chance you are looking for.

No matter where a game of any importance is played, there is always some one in the crowd who knows a ball player when he sees one, and you can count on this person, wherever he may be, to call your playing to the attention of some "big" baseball expert. That is the way a lot of good players have been "found." When you are making good, there is always someone watching you, and this fact you must always keep in mind. I did not know this when I was playing amateur ball, but as things have developed, I now realize that I did not have to bother managers in any der to get a tryout. It is the same in any case—if you are good, you can get plenty of offers.

One of our trainees, I recall, was given a chance to play on a semipro team, when we were both playing amateur ball. He was a catcher, and when he was told by someone in the crowd that a big league scout was looking the players over, he went on a stage fright, as it were, and made a very poor showing. He was so nervous, he made a foul, and had not thought of the thing he was doing. He certainly would be playing in the big league today, the point is this, remember that when you are looking over, but don't think for a minute that you must try and play better than you really are, but as long as your natural gift, and the chances out of ten you will make a better impression on the scout, in the end, will benefit by your efforts.

Here are some of the questions asked of me:

Q. Walter Maranville, I have been told that I have a "pull" that helped me to get into the big league. Is this true?

A. I have been told that you have a "pull" that helped me to get into the big league. Is this true?

Q. I have been told that I have a "pull" that helped me to get into the big league. Is this true?

MORRIS SIGNS TO MEET JESS WILLARD

By JACK CONWAY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Carl Morris, through his manager, William Newman, has signed to fight Jess Willard in Milwaukee. The promoter has refused to accept terms. Morris has signed articles with Manager Willard of the Garden A. C. to box Willard in the Madison Square arena the first week in December. Newman closed terms with Willard yesterday and the latter will telegraph Willard today.

Morris and his manager believe that a scrap with Willard in the garden will draw a $25,000 gate and for that reason they have out Milwaukee out. Willard is in California, but as soon as he hears from Morris, it is believed that he will accept terms and come East. Willard lost a close decision in twenty rounds in Cincinnati when he fought against Morris last year. Morris is a very even match.

President Lowell to Talk to Harvard Team

"Prexy" Will Speak at Thursday's Big Mass Meeting Prior to Eleven's Departure for Princeton.

By SYD LYNES.

WITH President Lowell addressing the mass meeting for the football team prior to its departure for Princeton to the another look in the country. It is possible, the last work has been received in the support of a college eleven, and if anyone ever again has the supreme desire to attend to that now slender ghost—Harvard indifference, it should be the plank without delay.

There is going to be a big, roaring mass meeting, white, of course, the arena will open, on Thursday evening in the Union, and in addition to the cheering address by the president and some of the coaches, President Lowell will have something to say to the approaching game, and probably the spirit of the eleven will be somewhat different from the one that will be seen at the game.
